

Dorset Guitar Society

McClelland-Cousté Workshop Form

Sunday 24th April – 10 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Kinson Community Centre, Millhams Road, Kinson. Rooms 2 & 3

The Dorset Guitar Society are pleased to offer you the opportunity of working with the McClelland-Cousté Duo

The workshop will be varied and interesting. There will be warm-ups and technique, a chance to learn to read tablature, large ensemble playing and time permitting, a chance to take part in a masterclass.

Vincea McClelland

Praised for her "dynamic playing style" (Rome Daily American) as well as her "skill and sensitivity" (Montreal Gazette), Canadian guitarist Vincea McClelland has given concerts throughout the world in a wide variety of venues, from the Beijing Concert Hall to Stockholm's Music Museum.

Raymond Cousté

Described by the New York Times as a "remarkably versatile" musician, French guitarist and lutenist Raymond Cousté has a vast performing experience, having appeared in over 100 countries worldwide as a soloist and member of various ensembles as well as in theatre productions.

Raymond Cousté uses different lutes for the interpretation of Renaissance and Baroque repertoire, and plays mainly twentieth-century music on the guitar.
